Pupils 'devastated' after school charity cash stolen

UPSET: Little Houghton Primary headteacher Carolyn Fairbrother with pupils and inset, year six students at Hackton Primary

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

HEARTLESS burglars stole almost £1,000 of money raised by primary school children during three break-ins.

Kids at both Little Houghton and Hackleton primary schools had been raising money for the past few months but the safes on the sites were taken overnight last Friday.

A large amount of money of parents' fees for privately-run Little Houghton Day Nursery was also taken.

All three incidents, which happened within hours of each other, have been linked by Northamptonshire Police.

Little Houghton Primary headteacher Carolyn Fairbrother said the pupils were 'devastated and distressed' at the loss.

The school had been raising money to pay the fees for a Ugandan girl to get an education and had just collected the required £600 for the charity.

The safe the cash was stored in was in a locked cupboard and bolted to the floor.

Mrs Fairbrother said: "The children have been doing this for months and the kids have been doing all sorts to fund-raise, clearing snow when it was snowing, cake stalls, all sorts of imaginative things.

"They have been publicising in the community the fact they were making and selling things so it could have been known that we had this money.

"We are extremely upset and disappointed.

"I mean we are a Christian school and we are teaching them to work hard and then this happens and it's like showing them that you can get something for nothing.

"Whoever it was came prepared.

"I don't know what we are going to do to get the money back but we have an open day on March 18 at 1.30pm so maybe we might be able to pass the kitty around."

Hackleton Primary was on its way to raising £3,000 for Paralympic skier Anna Turney to purchase new equipment in her bid for the 2016 Brazil Paralympics.

There was £309 in the safe from Year 6's efforts, which was part of the £1,700 already raised.

Assistant headteacher Sonja Pragnell said: "The children are absolutely devastated. They had done so much to get the money together and it is a real blow.

"As the saying goes, every penny counts, and this has really upset the children."

Sharon Peach, the day nursery's co-owner, said they will have to make do without the money that was taken.

She said: "The children will just have to have less toys for the next few months, unfortunately there is no way for us to recover it.

"The office and the locked cupboard were smashed into.

"We hope it was just a fluke that the money was there."

Both offenders are between 20 and 30, of medium build and wearing scarves over their faces. One was wearing a black jacket with a hat and the other a grey jacket with black sleeves.

Anyone with information is asked to call Northamptonshire Police on 101.

Second home council tax exemptions scrapped by authority

PEOPLE who own more than one home in Northampton will no longer be entitled to council tax discounts.

Northampton Borough Council has agreed to the changes and letters will be sent out over the next two weeks explaining how it affects homeowners.

From next month there will no longer be a discount available for empty and unfurnished properties, which will be charged the full amount of council tax.

Second homes will also be charged the full amount and properties that have been left vacant for more than two years will be charged 150 per cent council tax.

The borough council hopes this will free up more homes for people wanting to move to the town.

Councillor Alan Bottwood, cabinet member for finance, said: "We have people wanting to live in our town and they are eager to get on the property market with a home of their own."

"So why should houses stand empty and receive a discount on their council tax?"

"It makes sense to encourage property owners not to allow their properties to remain empty when they could be lived in and enjoyed by a family looking to move to Northampton or even stay in the area they grew up in."

Body of man found in river not 'suspicious' say cops

THE death of a man found in the River Nene is not being treated as suspicious by the police.

Officers were called to the water near Morrisons in Northampton on Tuesday afternoon after his body was spotted.

Police officers and the Fire & Rescue

Service were on the scene from around 12.20pm to recover the body.

Officers are now preparing a report for the coroner.

The man has not yet been identified. It is the second body in four weeks to have been found in the river. At the beginning of last month the body of missing Polish man Artur Liana was recovered from the reservoir near The Lakes business park, off Bedford Road.

Anyone with any information is asked to call Northamptonshire Police on 101.

Popular teen's cause of death is still a mystery

BY LAWRENCE JOHN
lawrencejohn@hpnorthants.co.uk

TENSIONS ran high at the inquest of a popular 16-year-old boy.

Before the hearing began, coroner Anne Pember apologised to Jamal Hibbert's family and friends for it taking nearly two years to hold it.

The teenager (pictured), an aspiring DJ and music producer who lived in Towcester Road, Northampton, was confirmed dead on May 1, 2011.

At the time thousands joined a Facebook group to pay their respects to the boy, followed by hundreds who released balloons and Chinese lanterns in Victoria Park.

The inquest heard Jamal had attended a party at a flat in St Leonards Court, Northampton, on Saturday, April 30, 2011.

In his statement, Stevie Potter said he saw Jamal drinking methadone in the kitchen while Luke Jones said he thought Jamal was 'on something'. There were a number of Jamal's family and friends at the inquest and on a number of occasions some of them tried to question the witnesses.

They were warned by Mrs Pember to stop or they would be asked to leave.

The inquest was told Jamal fell asleep on a sofa at the party and despite people in the flat trying to wake him, they could not.

Two girls were given instructions over the phone to try to resuscitate him before the paramedics arrived.

In her evidence which was read out, paramedic Jessica Cowan said she found the patient laying on his side on the floor and he went into cardiac arrest.

Jamal was declared dead at Northampton General Hospital (NGH) around lunchtime on May 1.

Consultant histopathologist at NGH, Dr Fattah said: "For me there was no evidence at that time of any toxic level of drugs. There was methadone but nothing to excess."

Mrs Pember recorded an open verdict and said: "He was only 16 years old and had the whole of his life ahead of him."

"If Dr Fattah, in his expert experience, is unable to say the cause of death then the only verdict I can return is an open verdict."

Community's latest efforts to help victims of arson

FURTHER support is being offered to a family displaced by an arson attack on their home.

Last week, the Herald & Post reported how neighbour

Lisa Monie had begun raising money for the family from Fieldgate Close, Wootton Fields. The pot now stands at almost £500.

Now, the community is organising an event for April 14 to help them raise some 'much needed cash'.

It will include face painting, a raffle, tombola, a disco and a bouncy castle and will be held at Wootton Memorial Hall between 2pm and 5pm.

A 22-year-old man from Wootton has been arrested on suspicion of arson. He has been released on police bail.

Tibetan flag raising draws in a crowd

HUNDREDS of people gathered to see the Tibetan flag raised.

The Dalai Lama's representative, Thubten Samdup, and the Mayor, Roger Conroy, were present for the honour at the Guildhall in Northampton on Tuesday which was in memory of the uprising in Tibet 54 years ago.

A statement from Northampton North MP Michael Ellis said: "I hope that the new Chinese leadership will show a reforming attitude to this matter and new-found respect for Tibetan culture but until they do, campaigners like those here today are so very important."

M1 hit as 12 vehicles crash during rush-hour

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

FOUR crashes happened on a stretch of the motorway within three and a half hours.

In total, ten cars and two lorries were involved in the multiple collisions on the M1 on Tuesday morning.

Three of them happened in the same place.

In the first incident a lorry overturned at 6.30am, northbound, between junction 15a-16.

And then less than an hour later, in the same location, a lorry and car were in collision.

Another hour later, at 8.30am, six vehicles crashed in the same place.

In all of the incidents there were no serious injuries.

Motorists faced long delays, despite there being no road closures, and were urged by police not to rubber-neck or slow down to see what had happened.

Finally, at 10am at junction 19 southbound, three vehicles were involved in a collision.

Two people suffered injuries.

PC Dave Lee, from the Roads Policing Unit, was keeping drivers updated at the scene using his twitter account (@Northants_RPU).

He tweeted: 'First job of the day. Crash on the M1 at jct 16.

'Lanes blocked at the moment m1 northbound at jct 16.

'Working to get it clear. Delays folks.

'Another crash just happened by us. 2 lanes closed on the M1 north at jct 16. 6 vehicle pile up.

'Motorway now clear again. Lots of heavy traffic still.'

Any witnesses are urged to call Northamptonshire Police on 101 or Crime-stoppers on 0800 555 111.

that, then it becomes amazingly easy for them to stop smoking and become a non-smoker

A habit, that's all it ever was!

Gary goes through the difference between a drug addiction and a drug habit, something most other professionals either don't do, or don't know how to do

LOCAL HYPNOTHERAPIST
Gary Foster claims he can help most people stop smoking in just one session, so long as they're prepared to put some effort in. In fact ...

He's so confident in his methods that if anyone sees him and has any worries, doubts or concerns after their session, he'll see them again for free until they are a non-smoker

When Jane Bootyman of Milton Earnest heard Gary speak recently at a meeting she decided to become a non-smoker and went from 30 a day, to nothing AND that was from just listening to him!

Most people are surprised to learn that smoking is just a habit and once their mind understands

He explains that he has never met anyone who's overdosed on cigarettes and reminds his clients that the government really doesn't care that much about them smoking, because if they did, they'd ban cigarettes, full stop. Here's what Jane Woods had to say about her session

"After my one session with Gary I have not even so much craved a cigarette and have not felt compelled to return to the nicotine trap. I was a 20 a day smoker for 17 years, so if I can stop, so can you!"

Mum's pitch marches on without the Saints

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE Saints are no longer looking to relocate their training pitches.

There are still hopes to turn the land in Eagle Drive, which has been subject to much controversy, into a community football pitch in memory of Northampton-born professional player Richard Butcher who died in January, 2011.

His mother, Gail, is hopeful that now the Saints are no longer looking to use the land that it may make her proposal easier to get through.

The Saints are planning to redevelop their Franklin's Gardens ground and were initially going to turn their current training pitches into a new car park, with a supermarket to be built on their existing facility.

The club will now look to find new land for the car park.

Saints spokesman Chris Wearmouth said: "After considering a wide range of possibilities regarding a potential relocation of two of the club's training pitches, Northampton Saints' management has decided that retaining the existing two pitches at Franklin's

MEMORIAL HOPES: Gail Butcher

Gardens is the best option in the club's interests.

"During the decision-making process, representatives from the Saints were in regular contact with Northampton Borough Council, the Home Farm Equestrian Centre (based on the land) and the Butcher family and attended public meetings in Far Cotton regarding Eagle Drive, and the club's management hopes that an agreement can be reached about the site which is suitable for all parties concerned."

Mrs Butcher said: "I am really hoping that things will still go ahead. While it is a shame that the Saints don't want to go there anymore, it might make it slightly easier for us to get the go ahead."

"I didn't really think there was going to be enough room for us all there, so this may help."

There have been no firm plans submitted yet from any interested party.

Leader of Northampton Borough Council David Mackintosh said: "We have commissioned a team of archaeological specialists to develop a conservation management plan for the site of the Battle of Northampton battlefield."

"This work will be progressing over the next few weeks as we talk to local experts and historians."

"Once we have completed the Conservation Management Plan we can look again at how we can celebrate our history and support the aspirations of Mrs Butcher in creating a fitting memorial for her son."

The equestrian centre, which uses part of the land, has been concerned that any development would affect their business.

JOINING FORCES: The community covenant signing at the Guildhall in Northampton on Monday

Town signs up with the armed forces

A FORMAL ceremony was held to mark Northampton's 'community covenant' with the military.

The voluntary agreement between the civilian community and the local armed forces aims to encourage mutual support and promote understanding and awareness.

The signing took place at the Guildhall in Northampton on Monday.

It recognises the sacrifices made by the armed forces and encourages activities that help to integrate them into local life.

The event in Northampton Borough Council's chamber was hosted by Councillor David Mackintosh, leader of the authority, and Cllr Roger Conroy, the Mayor of Northampton.

It was signed by Lt Colonel Alison Falcon, 49 Bde Representative for Northamptonshire, and representatives of the Lord Lieutenant, Lady Juliet Townsend, the High Sheriff, John Townsend, and Cllr Jim Harker, the leader of county council.

Black tie dinner brings in £6k for homeless charity

A GALA dinner has raised more than £6,000 for the Northampton Hope Centre.

More than 150 guests and supporters, including MPs and regional business leaders, attended the black tie event, hosted at the University of Northampton's Park Campus restaurant.

The charity provides support for more than 2,000 homeless, disadvantaged or vulnerable people across Northamptonshire every year.

The occasion marked the official launch of the Hope Centre's new commercial subsidiary, Hope Enterprises, which provides business and consumer services including catering, electrical PAT testing and garden tool refurbishment.

Chairman Adrian Pryce said: "The Hope Centre is taking on the challenge of helping people in need move from dependence to independence. With our supporters' help we are asking people to buy Hope Enterprises' services."

Extradition for man accused of teen sex

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

A MAN accused of a fortnight of underage sex with an American schoolgirl lost his High Court fight against extradition to the United States.

Richard Castle, 46, from Northampton, is alleged by the US authorities to have pretended to be a 17-year-old boy to win the affections of the girl who he is said to have met over the internet in 2009 when she was 12.

He faces accusations that he sent her photos of his private parts and travelled to Ohio for a holiday in 2011, during which it is claimed they had sex numerous times in his hotel and her home.

Mr Castle was arrested after authorities in the US requested his extradition, following a complaint by a teacher to whom the girl had confided in about the alleged relationship.

He contested his extradition, ordered last April, and yesterday two top judges rejected his appeal.

His legal team argued that extradition to the US could violate his right to liberty, guaranteed under Article 5 of the Human Rights Convention.

Mr Castle's lawyers argued that there was a risk that he could end up behind bars indefinitely beyond the expiry of any sentence he got if extradited and convicted.

Mr Justice Parker said: "He is plainly a prime candidate for deportation on the conclusion of any sentence he serves if extradited, tried and convicted.

"There is no reason to doubt that, having served any term of imprisonment, he would elect to return voluntarily to the UK in any event.

"This appellant stands no real risk of exposure to federal civil commitment in the US and there's no risk that any of his rights under Article 5 would be violated if he is extradited to the US."

BOY IN TERRORISM TRIAL
A TEENAGER is due to stand trial on terrorism offences.

The 16-year-old boy will appear at Birmingham Youth Court on Monday charged with possession of explosives, possession of materials 'likely to be useful to a person committing or preparing an act of terrorism' and possession of prohibited images of children.

The boy, who cannot be named for legal reasons, and who is from Northamptonshire is being detained in a secure mental health unit in the West Midlands.

COMIC RELIEF

We're having a raft for Comic Relief...

THE Herald & Post will be rafting down the River Nene to raise money for Comic Relief.

The ten-strong team from the sales department will build a raft and then race against each other at the Nene Whitewater Centre which is based on Bedford Road, Northampton.

Kerry Downes, county director at Clubs For Young People Northamptonshire and the centre, said: "They will all be given barrels, rope and wooden poles and with the help of a tutor will put together the rafts."

"Most people end up in the water but it is all in the name of a good cause."

Publisher Sharon Hobday said: "We wanted to do something 'funny for money' to raise money for this good cause."

"We are hopeful that our handiwork and knot-tying will hold together on the water."

Kids' cuddly toys to get their very own 'passports'

CHILDREN who lose their favourite toys could be reunited with them quicker thanks to a new passport scheme at a holiday park.

Family-owned Billing Aquadrome, in Great Billing, Northampton, is offering younger visitors the chance to register toys and have their photographs taken when they check in.

Peter Angelides, business development director, said: "Anyone who would like us to make a note of the details of any special toys they bring on holiday and also keep a record of them at reception can ask us to do so on arrival.

"We will also take a digital photograph of the toy, if this is ok with the parent or guardian, on its own so that if it gets separated from its owner and handed in we can quickly reunite them.

"Hundreds of favourite teddies, cuddly animals and blankies are lost every year at Billing Aquadrome and to help us ensure our visitors have a holiday to remember, for all the right reasons, we will be keeping details of these fluffy friends for the duration of their stay."

BRAVE: Ten-year-old Lewis Herbert with his new wheelchair

New £6k wheelchair set to change Lewis's life

A TEN-year-old boy with a rare life threatening condition has been given a specialist Mustang powered wheelchair worth £6,778.

West Syndrome has left Lewis Herbert, from Northampton, severely disabled and he requires constant care from his parents Lexi and Gary.

He has been given the chair by Caudwell Children.

Lewis's mum Lexi said: "Lewis is severely disabled and he requires two people to constantly care for him. He has trouble swallowing and he can forget to breathe, which means we are always on edge waiting to help him.

"This will totally transform his and our lives for many reasons.

"It will enable us to take Lewis on walks in parks and forests, travel around town or go on days out as a family."

Webcam's front row seat on demolition

BY LAWRENCE JOHN

lawrence.john@hpnorthants.co.uk

A LIVE webcam has been installed to allow residents to keep an eye on progress of the new bus interchange in Northampton town centre.

Contractor Kier has set up a camera on the Mayorhold car park which takes a new image every ten minutes and posts it on the Northampton Alive web pages.

Demolition work at the former Fishmarket site started last week and is expected to take around six weeks to complete.

Construction will then begin and the new interchange is expected to open in spring next year.

The £7 million Northampton Alive project - funded by Northampton Borough Council, West Northamptonshire Development Corporation and Northamptonshire County Council - will feature clean, modern facilities.

It will also allow for Greyfriars bus station to be demolished and replaced with retail premises.

Councillor Tim Hadland, Northampton Borough Council's cabinet member for regeneration, enterprise and planning, said: "This will be a fascinating development to keep an eye on. Northampton has needed this new interchange for such a long time and now people will be able to watch as it takes shape.

Visit www.northampton.gov.uk/northamptonalive to view the webcam and watch a short film of how the site will develop.

Police chief reflects on his first 100 days in the hot seat

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE Police and Crime Commissioner, Adam Simmonds has hit his first landmark in charge.

On Saturday, he reached his first 100 days in the role to which he was elected three months ago.

Mr Simmonds recently ruffled a few feathers in the county when he spoke of his aim to integrate the fire service and police through an organisation called Northamptonshire Emergency Services.

Speaking about his first 100 days, Mr Simmonds said: "It has been a blast and I have really enjoyed the challenge."

"I need to do a better job of communicating as I need to be clearer about what my ambitions are.

"I cannot just throw ideas into the air as I have an external audience (public) and an internal audience (police officers).

"It is not the police which need to work better it is the rest of the system like the Crown Prosecution Service and the court service.

"I worry some people do not like change.

"I have been elected for three and a half years and I am not concerned with the next election, I am concerned with the here and now.

"I have a good relationship with the Chief Constable, Adrian Lee, as I respect him."

Death of 'lively' PCC hopeful Jim a 'shock'

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE chairman of the Northampton branch of UKIP, who sadly passed away last week, was due to stand in the county council elections this year.

Jim MacArthur, 69 (pictured), passed away suddenly at his home in Flore last Wednesday.

Shortly before he died he had undergone an operation on his knee but it is not thought to be connected to his death.

He was to stand in the Northamptonshire County Council elections on May 2 in Long Buckby.

Mr MacArthur was most recently known for standing in the Police and Crime Commissioner elections. He came fourth after winner Adam Simmonds, Labour's Lee Barron and Independent candidate John Norrie.

He was the oldest Special Constable in the UK and tributes have come in from all political spectrums.

He campaigned in last November's elections on the knowledge he had gained from his policing career.

Mr MacArthur initially joined the RAF Police as an Aircraftman and then joined the SAS for three years.

Derek Clark, UKIP MEP for the East Midlands, said: "Jim was always cheerful in my dealings with him.

"He would do anything for anyone and was always willing to go out on a limb to help.

"His death was a big shock to everyone and he will be much missed by all.

"Jim was a very energetic man and was chairman of the Northampton Town branch of UKIP for the last two years which he led with great energy and enthusiasm.

"He was currently working to help draw up a list of candidates for the county council elections in May."

PCC opponent Mr Norrie tweeted: "Sad news about Jim MacArthur. I had the opportunity to get to know Jim during the PCC campaign, a lively character who will be missed."

Martin's here to stay as the Force's Deputy Chief

PERMANENT ROLE:
New Deputy Chief
Constable
Martin
Jelley

MARTIN Jelley has been confirmed as the new Deputy Chief Constable for Northamptonshire Police.

Mr Jelley, who joined Northamptonshire Police as Assistant Chief Constable in 2009, takes up his post with immediate effect, having been in an acting position since the beginning of last month.

His role includes overall responsibility for the Force's performance, organisational change and working alongside the Chief Constable and Police and Crime Commissioner (PCC) to ensure continued crime reduction throughout the county.

He replaces Suzette Davenport who became Chief Constable of Gloucestershire Police earlier in the year.

On appointment, he said: "I am absolutely delighted to be Northamptonshire's Deputy Chief Constable. I look forward to working with the Chief Constable and the PCC in this new role, to continue driving our commitment to reduce crime, doing the very best we can for the communities we serve and achieving even better levels of public confidence."

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Trevor Skidmore feels that it's all about service. "Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole."

Cloudy2Clear service the Northampton, Kettering, Wellingborough & Corby areas and Trevor is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. "The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated."

So, if your windows are steamed up, broken or damaged give Trevor a call for a free quotation on 0800 61 21 118 and he'll be happy to help!

Support local store from Tesco neighbour

HAVING found out last week that the Camp Hill shop was facing threat from supermarket giant Tesco; it filled me with anger and upset.

There really isn't a need for another Tesco as there is a massive store up the road and a Tesco Express which is also close by.

In all honesty, I only visit the Camp Hill shop maybe once or twice a month to drop off parcels but I am always greeted with exceptionally good customer service.

The owner, Navin Gathani, is a very friendly and polite man whom I'm sure has many other customers who share my opinion.

It is a shame that his business has become the latest target in Tesco's globalisation and as a person who also runs a small family business, I know how daunting it must be for him and his family.

The shop is their livelihood and the situation is simply a travesty.

I really hope the store opening doesn't go ahead.

More support for Camp Hill superstores please.

Litter problem getting 'worse'

ABOUT a year ago I wrote to you deploring the state of our litter-strewn streets and roads; I think the problem is getting worse.

The people trying to promote this area with the new 'Love Northampton' website must be walking around with their eyes closed.

I have a slogan for them: Litter, litter everywhere, I really do despair. Litter, Litter everywhere, does no one seem to care?

build a much larger store in the new Grosvenor but, with all the messing about, they have clearly given up on the town.

I look at Milton Keynes and the huge amount companies such as Disney and BHS have invested recently and it just makes me wonder, why is the council bothering at all? Why attract people to a dying town?

Help continue Alex's good work

EVERY year 100 people living in Northamptonshire will get meningitis. It's a devastating disease that can affect anyone, of any age, at any time - striking in minutes and killing within hours.

This Mother's Day will be my first without my wonderful son, Alex. He was taken from us on August 1, 2012, 11 years after contracting meningitis. The disease left him wheelchair-bound, with memory issues and in constant pain. Alex was only 18 when he died.

Alex spent most of his short life passionately raising awareness of meningitis and the work of a charity very close to his heart, the Meningitis Trust.

The year before he died, Alex became a Young Ambassador for the Meningitis Trust - a job he loved to bits. This Mother's Day, I am continuing his work - raising life-saving awareness of meningitis across the UK - hoping to appeal to every mother (and indeed father, grandparent and carer) out there.

I am urging everyone to learn about the disease that took my wonderful son. Knowledge can save lives when it comes to meningitis.

They have free credit-card sized symptoms cards for your purse and free apps for you to download to your smartphones.

When you visit the Trust's website, you will see Alex - so happy and smiling.

He always was. During his life he inspired so many people with his positive attitude, including the staff and supporters of the Meningitis Trust and they have set up an appeal in his memory, ensuring that his important work with the charity continues.

They aim to raise £1 million over the next four years. His motto following the disease was 'Believe and Achieve'.

And despite everything meningitis threw at him he considered himself to be lucky and he achieved so much.

He used to say to me: "There is no way I am going to let anyone go through what I did and feel it's the end; it's only the beginning, believe me."

Please don't let my son's death be in vain - help us today to help others. Please donate as much as you can online at www.meningitis-trust.org/alex Every penny will help in the fight against meningitis.

Lights will stop car crime

SO the police held a car crime event in the Grosvenor Centre on Saturday, March 2.

According to the police, the car crime in the Scottish Streets in St James has rocketed in recent weeks.

The people in St James have a suggestion for the Conservative County Council that would cut car crime in their area at a stroke: TURN THE LIGHTS BACK ON

Why bother with 'dying' town

I WRITE in response to your front page article 'Shopping centre delay has left town in 'limbo' in the Herald & Post last week.

Are the council or Legal & General (L&G) raising rates to high that the Grosvenor is losing stores?

I note that the Disney Store is the latest to announce its departure from Northampton citing it being too expensive here.

BHS has made virtually no improvements to its store despite approval, though this may change in light of the major disaster they had there today with the floods and subsequent damage.

We just keep losing stores at a time when the council claim the town centre is vital.

If it is the rates the council or L&G are charging which is deterring investment in the town then, let's get something done about that else all we shall have left is Tesco, pound shops, pawn brokers and charity shops.

As far as I am aware, Disney had plans to

The 'terrible' reality of testing

A NEW Animal Aid report describes how the research programme to tackle major human diseases by breeding and experimenting on genetically modified mice is resulting in terrible and pointless animal suffering.

Epilepsy mouse 'models' have seizures triggered by having acid injected into their abdomens, with some of them dying from uninterrupted fitting.

Those responsible for such terrible suffering argue that it's worthwhile because the 'reprogrammed' rodents can teach us about human disease.

But the new Animal Aid report, Science Corrupted: the nightmare world of GM mice demonstrates that, while mice have the capacity to feel pain and fear, the genetic and physiological differences between rodents and our own species are far too great for them to act as reliable human substitutes in disease research.

Science Corrupted goes on to list numerous 'promising' therapies that worked effectively in the GM mouse 'models' but went on to fail hopelessly in patients with conditions such as Alzheimer's, cancer and heart disease.

Tories eye another ten years at the top

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

THE leader of the county council believes that if the Conservatives retain their majority in this May's elections the party will run the authority for at least another decade.

Councillor Jim Harker said at the launch of the party's manifesto on Monday that if they won this year then that is normally 'the way things go'.

Cllr Harker was speaking to around 60 Conservative members who will be fighting for seats over the next two months.

He said: "Our record will be based on the last eight years since we inherited the shambles Labour left us with."

"We have an excellent record and a well thought out manifesto. We will be fighting every seat."

"If, no when, we win in May, it will be our third four year term. It's worth making the point that it is likely we will hold it for another ten years."

"That is generally the way these things go. It is really important we win in May, for Northamptonshire."

AMBITION: Leader of Northamptonshire County Council Cllr Jim Harker

Included in the manifesto are promises to continue to keep council tax 'low', publish any transactions from £200, concentrate on youth employment and developing the historic Chester Farm site.

At the elections, on May 2, there will be a decrease of 16 county councillors after a review by the Local Government Boundary Commission for England.

This means there will be 57 seats up for grabs.

Last week, the Liberal Democrats launched their election bid, which included a petition for streetlights to be switched back on.

BATTLE: Cllr Gareth Eales, who is backing the Spencer Dallington Residents' Association's fight to get the 'rumble strips' removed

Fight to silence 'noisy' road goes on RESIDENTS are continuing their fight to silence 'rumble strips' on a road in a Northampton estate. The county council offered to remove half of the safety measures in Gladstone Road and give the Spencer Dallington Residents' Association £50,000 to improve the neighbouring side roads. But they rejected the offer as they want all of the 'noisy' strips removed.

A council spokesman said: "The solution offered to residents increases the stretches of relatively quiet highway and introduces vehicle activated signs and new road markings."

Cocaine plane nets cops £17k

BY SOPHIE SCOTT
sophie.scott@hpnorthants.co.uk

A PLANE used by drug traffickers has been sold for more than £17,000 by Northamptonshire Police.

The microlight aircraft was used by an international gang to fly in cocaine valued at £1.7 million.

It is thought to be the first time a force has seized an aeroplane under the Misuse of Drugs Act and progressed to selling it.

The Zenair Zodiac aircraft was listed on eBay with a reserve of £12,000.

The listing ended at 8pm on Monday and saw 21 bids in total made on the plane, with 11 on the last day. A thousand people were 'watching' the item.

The money from the sale will now be invested in policing activities.

The aircraft was confiscated by officers from the East Midlands Special Operations Unit during an investigation into an organised crime gang.

The case concluded in November last year with the convictions of six men for a total of 37 years.

Class A drugs were driven from Amsterdam to France, where they were loaded onto the aircraft and flown into Northamptonshire.

All six men pleaded guilty to conspiracy to import Class A drugs.

Police and Crime

Commissioner Adam Simmonds said: "The sale of the plane and the interest from the public we've seen has been tremendous."

"It sold well above the reserve price and more than we expected to get."

"We can now use the money from the sale for policing activities. This sends a strong message to criminals that we will seize and sell their assets."

Detective Inspector Greg Maides said: "This has been a unique case."

"To add to the successful convictions we got in court, the sale of this aircraft has added to the impact this case has had on those who have committed crime in our communities."

Time please! Views wanted on drinking hours

BUSINESSES and residents are being asked for their thoughts on cutting drinking hours.

Northampton Borough Council is sending out letters about the possibility of introducing Early Morning Restriction Orders (EMROs).

The Police Reform and Social Responsibility Act 2011 enables licensing authorities to restrict the sale of alcohol for some or all of the time between the hours of midnight and 6am in areas where it is considered that there are alcohol related crime and disorder issues.

Over the next month the council will also be gathering information and views from the police, ambulance service, health authority and other relevant agencies.

All the comments and information will be presented to the licensing committee so it can decide whether to launch a full consultation on whether an EMRO would benefit a specific area in.

Councillor Christopher Malpas, chairman of the authority's licensing committee, said: "We are beginning to gather views on an EMRO and any future decision made by the committee will be based on the evidence brought before us."

People can add their views by emailing licensing@northampton.gov.uk or writing to the council's Licensing Department at the Guildhall, St Giles Square, Northampton, NN1 1DE.

CROCKETT & Jones has a worldwide reputation for producing quality English shoes.

Based in Perry Street, Northampton, the company which is 130 years old, keeps the well heeled and dressed man in shoes.

The Victorian factory is located in the same railway traversed streets it has been in for more than 100 years.

It is remarkable to think that from this one factory shoes made with a heritage and tradition associated with the county are shipped around the world.

Out of all the shoes it makes in the factory, 70 per cent are exported.

So if you are walking along Wall Street in New York, there is a chance the bankers passing you will be wearing shoes made in Northamptonshire.

And they'd be in good company as another wearer is 007, James Bond. The iconic character has them on in his latest adventure, Skyfall.

They are not only worn by the fictional spy but by the actor who plays him - Daniel Craig.

Because of this, Bond fanatics rang up the Crockett & Jones shop in New York wanting to buy the shoes themselves - not to wear but to hang on their wall

More pictures on our website: www.northampton-news-hp.co.uk as a film keepsake. When Skyfall was launched in the cinema, C&J decorated its London shop in a Bond theme.

It covered the windows with film posters and the only way you could see in was by looking through the bullet holes.

Managing director at C&J, Jonathan Jones, said: "More than half our manufacturing is exported."

"We have been producing shoes for 130 years and exporting them for about 100 years."

"But it is only in the last 20 years we have been increasing this market."

"Northampton is associated with shoes of the highest quality and as they are constructed using Goodyear Welt they are built to last. It is a nice association with James Bond and is made more personal with our contact with Daniel Craig."

"We do not talk about it much as for us it is more personal but the James Bond connection is all good publicity."

"We make traditional/classic style but we do follow trends and it is a question of keeping up to date and understanding our market."

"Northampton English shoes are of the highest quality."

"While fashion people buy Hugo Boss or Prada, what we sell is quality and has an excellent reputation."

Bond with tradition

DEDICATION: A look behind the scenes at Crockett & Jones

there were 50 factories in Northamptonshire producing shoes. Now there are only 17 left.

Mr Jones added: "We sell throughout Europe and are strong in Germany, Sweden, France, Spain and Italy.

"We also go to the USA where we are strong on the Eastern side of the country in cities like New York and export to Asia including Japan, China and South Korea.

"We have to balance our distribution.

"We sell shoes in New York as we do on the West coast of America but on the East coast they sell well.

"We are looking to develop our market in Asia and China is an obvious example where people buy luxury goods."

In the UK the company has five shops in London, one in Manchester and one in Birmingham.

It also has three shops in Paris and one in New York.

C&J make 260 styles of shoes which cost in the region of £300-£400 but can make you a special semi-bespoke pair for £650.

The company's fully bespoke shoes are available from its retail shop at 14 Rue Chauveau-Lagarde in Paris.

They take six weeks to make and cost £2,800.

If you feel like splashing the cash, you could even go for a crocodile pair costing £4,000.

The cutters are responsible for cutting the leather and there are a few dedicated people who do this task.

They learn their trade by cutting out car skins.

Export director, Robin Guinness said: "It takes eight weeks to make a pair of shoes and there are more than 200 single applications to complete this task.

"The shoes go up and down the five storey building before they reach the shoe room when they are finished.

"We employ more than 300 workers in the factory and some of them have been working here for generations."

Crockett & Jones is still owned by the same family of the two men (Sir James Crockett and Charles Jones) who established the company in 1879.

In January, the heir to the throne, Prince Charles, visited the Crockett & Jones shoe factory in Northampton.

It was part of a nationwide tour to encourage young people to get into manufacturing.

He toured the factory and was presented with some Black Calf Tetbury boots (as worn by James Bond in Skyfall) as a gift for Princes William and Harry.

For himself, he chose a classic punch cap Oxford, Belgrave.

Charities depend on you

The Free Wills Month charities do amazing work ensuring the safety of our planet, easing the suffering of people in pain or distress, researching groundbreaking cures for cancer, diseases and the causes of disability, caring for abandoned animals and saving lives at sea. None of this is possible without the help of the general public.

Charities rely on gifts in Wills for up to half their income. It's a vital support for their future and an easy way for people just like you to make a difference. Free Wills Month lets people aged 55 and over have their Will written free of charge – we only ask that after remembering loved ones you take time to consider how you could be remembered. What will your legacy be?

Ding murder trial brought forward

THE provisional trial date for murder suspect Anxiang Du has been brought forward.

Mr Du will stand trial from July 29, instead of August 5, because of the 'availability of experts'.

Mr Du, 54, faces four counts of murder of the Ding family.

He was arrested at Heathrow Airport two weeks ago, after being extradited from Morocco.

Jeff Ding, 46, his wife Helen, 47 and daughters Xing 'Nancy', 18, and 12-year-old Alice died at their home (pictured) in Pioneer Close, Wootton, on the day of the Royal Wedding in April 2011.

The trial, at Northampton Crown Court, is expected to last ten days.

There will be a plea and case management hearing on May 7.

69 under 18s reported for sex abuse on a child

BY SOPHIE SCOTT

sophie.scott@northants.co.uk

ALMOST 70 children were reported to Northamptonshire Police for committing sexual abuse on other youngsters.

Figures obtained by the NSPCC from the force show that 69 child sex abuse offences committed by under 18s were reported in the last three years.

Nationally, nearly all – 98 per cent – of the 4,562 offenders were boys.

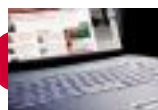

And where the relationship was recorded at least three out of five of the victims knew their abuser.

Claire Lilley, NSPCC policy advisor, said: "In some cases older children are attacking younger ones and in other cases it's sexual violence within a teenage relationship."

"While more research needs to be done on this problem, we know that technology and easy access to sexual material is warping young people's views of what is 'normal' or acceptable behaviour." Detective Inspector Stuart Hitchon, from the Child Protection Team at Northants Police, said: "In comparison with the total volume of child abuse cases we deal with, I would say that 69 offences represents a low number of offences over a three-year period."

"During this time, we certainly haven't seen an increase in the number of child offenders in the county."

Welcome

Whether you are looking to buy, sell, rent, let or simply improve where you currently live, you will find all the information you need in this supplement.

For those of you looking to give your current home a lift, this week we are going crazy for cushions.

If you want to find something to revamp a room in your property there is a huge variety on offer and we have selected a host of styles and colours so I'm sure there will be something to suit. I hope you find some inspiration.

If you are currently selling your property, make sure to have a flick through (with your coffee) to check you're in the right price bracket and that your estate agent is marketing your property in all the options available.

Whether price is everything to you, or you are looking for that customer service, there is a wealth of new and established estate and letting agents throughout the town who can cater to your every need; so go and see what they can do.

As always, there are some stunning new properties on the market within the town, and throughout the county and some at surprisingly low prices; so sit back and enjoy viewing that dream house or being pleasantly shocked at what you can afford!

Warmest regards,

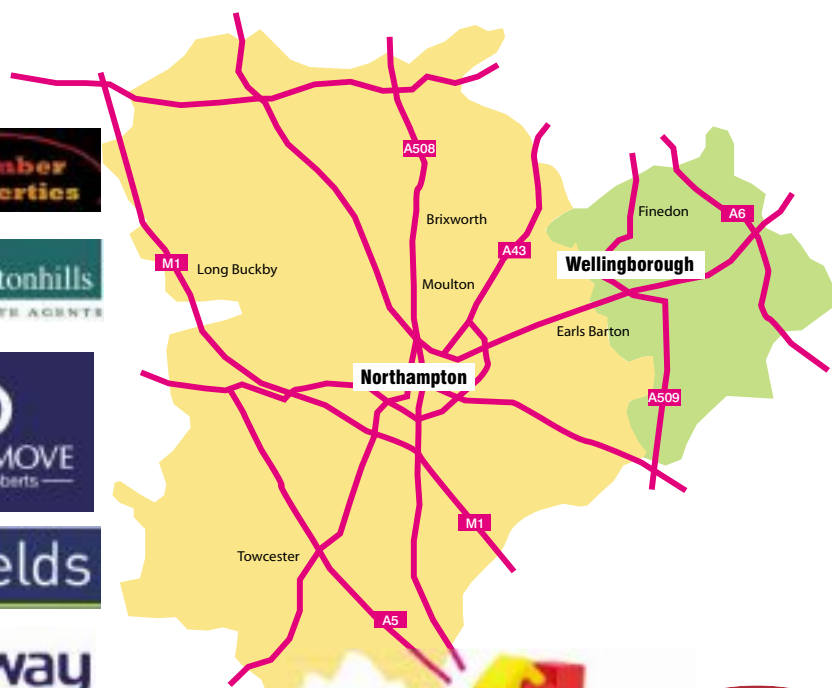

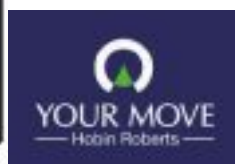

James

NewBuy is aiming to get you moving

THANKS to a recent change in the rules, which had previously prevented part exchange being used in conjunction with 95 per cent mortgages under the NewBuy initiative, more people than ever can get valuable help to move to Harmans Chase.

It's a welcome boost for those who want and need somewhere larger to raise a family but perhaps don't have substantial equity in the home they're moving from.

Helen McGill, area sales manager for Redrow Homes (South Midlands), said: "Feedback from visitors to the show homes at Harmans Chase is that they love the combination of traditional exteriors and bright modern interiors, but that they feel they won't be able to move here.

"They may have a house to sell, fear that a lack of equity in their current property could prevent them from moving or it could be a combination of the two.

"The good news is that with NewBuy, a brand new home is more affordable than ever before.

"And part exchange takes the stress and hassle away as customers will simply be able to trade in their old home towards the cost of a new one.

"Combining NewBuy and part exchange means there really is no reason not to make that move."

Part exchange and NewBuy are still available to use as standalone incentives and Redrow will tailor packages to suit individual customers.

Harmans Chase features three and four-bedroom homes, with current prices from £214,995.

The stylish properties all boast well equipped kitchens with integrated top brand appliances.

Harmans Chase is located in Harmans Way in Weedon Bec at the crossroads of the A5 and A45.

To discover more about the benefits of moving to Harmans Chase, visit the show homes and marketing suite, open daily from 10am to 5.30pm.

WE'VE GOT THE CUSHION FEVER

Whether it's a living room, bedroom, family room or conservatory - there are plenty of spaces within your home that could be lifted with some simple soft furnishings.

Cushions have become more popular over recent years and there are now so many to choose from.

It won't matter what colour theme you have gone for - you will be able to find something to match, contrast or complement.

You can then layer them to build on your scheme and really finish your look.

And don't be afraid to mix and match - indulge yourself and place leather with fluffy styles or patterns with bold colours.

When it comes to cushions, the more the merrier!

From House

To Home

IF you have been wondering what that big yellow disc in the sky is, we can confirm that it is in fact, the sun.

It may not hang around for too long of course, but while it is with us you should make the most of the jobs you have been putting off throughout winter.

As much fun as DIY is, sometimes when you are looking to decorate, tear down a couple of walls or completely rewire your house it is best to let the professionals look after you. With high standards and the experience to do the job properly it is always nice to be able to sit back, relax and watch your house being transformed in front of your eyes.

Whether you are looking to improve to sell, rent or just want a change, give your local companies a ring and see what they can do for you!

A helping hand on the 'ladder'

ATTENTION all first time buyers who aspire to own their own home! Getting on the property ladder is now a lot easier than you think if you purchase a brand new build property.

A recent report from the House Builders Federation has shown that it takes first-time buyers in the East Midlands an average of five years and one month to save for their deposit, compared to two years a decade ago.

However, by buying a new Taylor Wimpey East Midlands home, purchasers can take advantage of a range of schemes and incentives which significantly reduce the size of the deposit needed, making it quicker and easier to buy your first home.

Taylor Wimpey currently has a number of developments across the East Midlands offering a wide range of homes and initiatives designed to help purchasers make the move into a new home. Exclusive to new homes, the Government-backed NewBuy scheme has seen an increase in the availability of 95 per cent loan-to-value mortgages specifically for new-build properties, meaning credit-worthy buyers may now only need to save a five per cent deposit to secure their new home.

Also exclusive to buyers who want a brand new home, the FirstBuy shared equity scheme enables qualifying first-time buyers to own and purchase their new home for only 80 per cent of their full price, still with a deposit as low as five per cent. But new home purchasers need to hurry as they are on selected plots and are subject to status.

Dominic Harman, regional managing director for Taylor Wimpey, said: "The concept that it could take first-time buyers in the East Midlands such a long time to save for a deposit is obviously disheartening for some aspiring homeowners. But at Taylor Wimpey we can help and one of the many advantages of a brand new home is that we can offer many incentives that provide the flexibility which allows purchasers to buy their new home with affordable deposits, significantly reducing the length of time it takes to get onto the property ladder."

"We've been overwhelmed by the response to schemes such as NewBuy and FirstBuy and we are delighted that in 2012 we helped 1,750 people across the UK to buy a brand new home using the schemes. Anyone who wants to move but thinks they just can't afford the deposit should visit one of our developments today."

First-time buyer incentives are currently available with selected plots in Northamptonshire:

Character is the key for Liz

MR WHATNOT

Royal & Derngate

March 15-April 6

ACTORS prepare for their roles in different ways.

Liz Crowther, who is set to play Lady Slingsby-Craddock in Mr Whatnot by Alan Ayckbourn at the Northampton theatre, has her own distinct way of 'getting into the part'.

She likes to read the script and then create an imaginary biography of her character so it adds depth and substance to them and they become 3D.

This is exactly what she has done for her latest role.

The play is an hilarious fish-out-of-water tale. A naïve but highly imaginative piano tuner is summoned to the stately home of Lord and Lady Slingsby-Craddock.

A case of mistaken identity leads to an increasingly surreal series of encounters over a summer weekend of tennis matches and afternoon tea, as Mr Whatnot attempts to win the affections of their debutante daughter Amanda.

This play has fond memories for Liz as in the 1980s she actually played Amanda herself. Liz said: "I think drama has the most amazing power and doing a comedy like this is about having fun and enjoying and sharing the humour."

"Comedy is very different, very precise and is incredibly joyful. There is a different reaction with each audience and this spills out into the theatre."

"In the theatre we work as a team but it does mean each role expands you so you become like that character."

"What I love about acting is you keep learning and this allows you to focus on different people's lives."

Get in the swing for a Hollywood sensation

MUSICAL

HIGH SOCIETY

Royal & Derngate

April 9 - 13, 7.30pm

COLE Porter's timeless classic High Society brings the glories of Hollywood's Golden Age to the stage in a dazzling new show from the acclaimed producers of The King and I.

Adapted from the hit 1956 film starring screen legends Bing Crosby, Grace Kelly and Frank Sinatra, High Society fizzles with a host of beautiful ballads including True Love, You're Sensational and the unforgettable Well, Did You Evah! This uplifting, sparling show proves Porter's classic musical style and effervescent wit will never go out of fashion.

Wealthy socialite Tracy Lord (Sophie Bould from Royal & Derngate's The Go-Between) is in the midst of planning a lavish summer wedding when her ex-husband, jazz musician Dexter Haven, arrives to disrupt the proceedings in an attempt to try to win her back.

The role of Haven is taken by Michael Praed, star of Robin of Sherwood, and Daniel Boys, of Any Dream Will Do fame, plays Mike Connor.

Marilyn Cutts is Tracy's mother Margaret Lord and the cast also includes Teddy Kempner, Craig Pinder, Kieron Crook and Alex Young

Tickets cost £14 to £34.50 and are available from the Box Office on 01604 624811 or at www.royal-landderngate.co.uk

Day at the fair is a good sport

EVENTS

KELMARSH COUNTRY FAIR

Kelmarsh
March 31-April 1

THE Kelmarsh Country Fair arrives at the end of the month and promises to kick-start the game fair season into action.

Held within the spectacular grounds of the Kelmarsh Estate, the event will showcase country life at its best.

The fair is set to attract a fusion of families and field sports enthusiasts who take part in an outstanding range of countryside attractions and family entertainment.

There will be world-renowned field sport competitions offering the largest prize funds in their respective disciplines and many 'have-a-go' opportunities that allow others to learn more about outdoor pursuits.

The Kelmarsh Country Fair has everything you could need for a great family day out. With more than 250 trade stands, crafts and antiques fairs, gundog events and clay shooting, live entertainment, musical acts and demonstrations and an array of feature arenas, there really is something for everyone to get involved in and enjoy.

Countryman Fairs organise five award-winning events across the UK throughout the year, each showcasing the very best in country life.

The event brings together a score of features, a variety of arenas and family-inspired attractions, Kelmarsh 2013 and its superb line-up is an event not to be missed. For more information visit www.countrymanfairs.co.uk

MUSIC

THE DUBLIN LEGENDS

Royal & Derngate
March 16, 7.30pm

FORMER Dubliners Sean Cannon, Patsy Watchorn, Eamonn Campbell and Gerry O'Connor bring their famed repertoire of folk and rebel songs and ballads to town for this night of music.

They will sing classics including Whiskey in The Jar, Dirty Old Town, The Wild Rover, Seven Drunken Nights and The Rare Auld Times.

Tickets cost £21 and can be booked by calling the Box Office on 01604 624811 or visiting www.royalandderngate.co.uk

Back in the groove with sixties sounds

MUSIC

SOLID SILVER 60S

Royal & Derngate
March 14, 7.30pm

GET ready to twist and shout when the swinging sounds of a magical decade arrives in town as part of a tour.

It features Mike Pender, Dave Berry and Wayne Fontana, all backed by the New Amen Corner, with special guest stars The Merseybeats.

Pender, the original voice of Merseybeat giants The Searchers, will be singing hits including Sweets For My Sweet, Sugar and Spice, Needles and Pins and Don't Throw Your Love Away.

Berry is best remembered for the haunting ballad The Crying Game and Fontana's first big hit came in the autumn of 1964 with Um, Um, Um, Um, Um, recorded with his band The Mindbenders and this was followed by Game Of Love in 1965.

Tickets are priced at £25. To book call 01604 624811.

HEAD OF ENGLISH

An enthusiastic, well qualified teacher is required for September 2013 to lead a large and successful department, with over 100 boys studying English in the Sixth Form at A Level or the International Baccalaureate (IB).

A willingness to take an active part in the wider life of a busy boarding and day School is essential and the ability to coach games, especially one of the School's major sports, would be an advantage.

The School has its own salary scale which is well above the national scale. Accommodation may be available and there is generous fee remission for children of teaching staff of all the Harpur Trust Schools in Bedford.

Further details are available from
Sarah Lapidge, Bedford School, De Parys Avenue, Bedford MK40 2TU
tel: 01234 362214 fax: 01234 362283 email: slapidge@bedfordschool.org.uk.

A copy of the job description and an application form is available to download from the School's website (www.bedfordschool.org.uk). Applications should be returned to the Head Master no later than midday on Friday 15th March 2013.

www.bedfordschool.org.uk

The Harpur Trust is committed to safeguarding and promoting the welfare of children and young people and expects all staff and volunteers to share this commitment. The successful applicant will be subject to an Enhanced DBS (formerly CRB) check, references and other checks.

Mistry on form to take title

SNOOKER

ASHIK Mistry came through the biggest field yet at Barratts to beat Biagio Sereno 3-1 and win the Monthly Handicap thanks to potting some good long balls and mixing it with good safety.

Mistry had struggled in previous events to make an impact but he looked a different player this month and was focused throughout the day. He beat Tommy Chandler 3-1 in his last 16 match before defeating previous winner Dave Ballard in the quarter finals.

In the semi-finals Mistry had a tricky encounter with inexperienced Neil Meakins, who was playing in only his second event. However after a long drawn out affair Mistry came through 3-2 to reach the final.

In the other half of the draw Sereno had an easier passage to the final and dropped just one frame on the way to the semi-finals. There he met Jamie Mok, beating him 3-1.

In the final, Sereno conceded the first frame when he went in off despite having plenty of points available to still win the frame. However he recovered to take the next frame before Mistry again went ahead at 2-1. This time Sereno could not reply and Mistry took the title.

John Thorpe won the Plate competition with a 3-1 win over Ryan Roberts. Thorpe also made the day's highest break of 73, as well as knocking in breaks of 55 and 51. The next event is on Sunday, April 7.

Sharpe exit for veteran

BOWLS

MICK Sharpe suffered two first-round exits in the National Championship Finals at Melton & District IBC last week, bowling out in the opening stages of the Men's Over 60s Singles and Pairs competitions.

The Kingsthorpe IBC bowler lost 21-8 to Tunbridge Wells IBC's Bill Crittle in the Singles, acknowledging afterwards he struggled to adapt to the speed of the green at Melton.

Sharpe and Jim McKee then exited the Pairs competition in the first round as well, going down 21-18 against Roger Howse and Roger Herridge, of Folkestone IBC in a close-fought match.

Kingsthorpe's Neil McKee heads to Durham IBC next week to represent England in the Men's Senior International series, which see the four Home Nations and the Channel Islands taking part.

McKee will be playing at number two in a rink skipped by Jamie Chestney, of Galloway IBC. Mark Daves plays at lead and Stephen Farish is at number three.

Northants coach David Ripley believes new signing Muhammad Azharullah is as quick as anything on the county's staff. Picture: Andy Kearns

Northants coach in swoop for paceman

CRICKET

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@hpnorthants.co.uk

DAVID Ripley is delighted Northamptonshire were able to fend off the interest of several other counties to secure the signing of pace bowler Muhammad Azharullah for this season.

The Pakistan-born right armer has played most of his first class career in his homeland, but has experience of playing in England through several stints in the Bradford Cricket League.

He has since married an English girl and recently qualified for British citizenship, which has enabled Northants to snap him up despite some of their rivals also being interested in securing Azharullah's services.

"He came to our attention through our scouting network and we're very pleased to have been able to get him because there was a lot of interest from other counties," said head coach Ripley.

"He has been very careful about the amount of days he spent outside the country, so it's good to know he has been serious about trying to get British citizenship and earn the opportunity of playing county cricket.

"He's a quick bowler. He's not the biggest, but he's a very skiddy and can bowl as fast as anyone else on the Northants staff. He has got a good pedigree, having played four-day cricket and limited overs cricket.

"He is capable of playing all three forms of the game. He's the all-round package and he'll provide healthy competition for us."

Azharullah's signing comes just two weeks after Northants confirmed they had secured Australian international seamer Trent Copeland for the first part of the season.

They also have Steven Crook, David Willey, Lee Daggett, Sam Sweeney, Andrew Hall, Luke Evans and Olly Stone in their pace attack. Chief executive David Smith is pleased with how the bowling department has shaped up.

"Our seam bowling attack...offers us good cover for potential injury and player rotation to manage work load," said Smith. "We also have good spin bowling options with James Middlebrook, Con De Lange and Matthew Sprigell."

Azharullah will not be joining Northants for their pre-season tour to Barbados as his citizenship did not come through until last week.

The squad head out to the Caribbean on Monday and return to England on Saturday, March 23. That gives them two weeks training here before the new season gets underway with the trip to Glamorgan in the LV= County Championship on Wednesday, April 10.

Yorkshire, Nottinghamshire, Derbyshire and Hampshire are also in Barbados during the same period, with all five competing in a Twenty20 tournament along with two sides from the island. Northants also have some two-day matches planned.

It makes a welcome change to the 2012 preparations, which saw the team struggling to secure any meaningful friendlies when the planned tour to South Africa was cancelled for financial reasons.

As a consequence, Northants went into the campaign under-prepared and struggled to click from the off.

Ripley hopes to avoid a repeat, but admits it is not always possible to have an overseas pre-season camp.

"Ideally, you'd be able to go on tour every year but financial constraints mean that's not possible," he said. "The club and the supporters have rallied round and we've been able to make this trip happen."

"We've been in the indoor centre since January and it's a carrot for the players knowing that they will be able to go to Barbados."

Deals for Town duo

AIDY Boothroyd has warned youth-team graduates David Moyo and Claudio Dias the hard work is still to come after they agreed one-year professional contracts with Northampton Town.

Midfielder Dias and forward Moyo, both 18, have both been regulars on the substitutes bench for the Cobblers this season after coming through the Academy.

Cobblers boss Boothroyd has been impressed with the pair so far, but warned they cannot sit back and relax now they have been handed full-time contracts.

"Both David and Claudio have earned their deals but the hard work starts now," said Boothroyd. "In many ways, your first professional contract is the easy part. They must keep working hard, listening and gaining experience every day to become better players. Football is a very competitive industry and both players know what is ahead of them."

King's Heath boy is top of the class

BOXING

BY MARC BAZELEY

marc.bazeley@hphorhants.co.uk

CONNOR Hannifin became the latest King's Heath ABC fighter to claim a national title after beating Kelson Mitchell-Thurgood in the Class One 46kg final of this year's ABAE Schools Championship on Sunday.

Hannifin took a 4-1 majority win in the decider at Everton Park in Liverpool, coming through a nervous performance in the first round to take control of the bout and clinch the title.

The 13-year-old had been slated to face the Hornchurch and Elm Park ABC boxer in a non-championship contest, although the bout had not happened due to injury. However, when he finally got his chance he made the most of it.

"Connor boxed very well," said King's Heath coach James Conway. "Our target was to have at least one winner in this championship, so we're very proud of him for achieving that."

"It was a bout we had fancied for a while, but for various reasons it never happened. Connor had to go into hospital with a twisted intestine, and then one of them fell off their bike."

"He was a bit nervous in the first round and was bouncing all over the place, but once we calmed him down he boxed superbly. He took it on a 4-1 majority, but there was never any doubt he had won."

Club mate Patrick Smith was also involved in the Class Two 50kg final, but lost by unanimous decision to reigning Tri-Nations champion Billy King, of Guildford ABC.

Far Cotton Boys ABC had three fighters involved in the finals on Saturday, but they came away empty handed. Nevertheless, Morgan Bosley had the consolation of knowing he will represent England at this year's Tri-Nations tournament.

Bosley was runner-up in the same competition last year, losing on double countback, and again suffered a narrow defeat in the Class Three 46kg final against Hoddeston ABC's Francis Doherty by majority decision.

Both finalists have earned the right to represent their country in May, but the result was nonetheless disappointing for Bosley and Far Cotton head coach John Daly.

"I thought Morgan had done enough to win it, but I don't want to sound like I'm complaining about the judging," said Daly.

Connor Hannifin is the new Class One 46kg ABAE Schools Champion
Picture: Andy Kearns

"After last year, he really wanted to win and he was unlucky to lose. Doherty was on the back foot throughout and Morgan hit him with some really good shots to the body and head."

"He was still upset about it on the way home and he had been in tears for about half an hour afterwards."

Daly was less pleased with the performance of Edward Stokes, who failed to rise to the occasion in the Class Three 44kg final against Jimmy McDonagh, of Walcot ABC.

McDonagh had previously lost to Far Cotton boxers Connor Downes and Drew Brown in non-championship contests, but took a majority decision win over Stokes which Daly felt flattered his fighter. Kyle Mason also lost by unanimous decision against unbeaten John Lee, of the renowned Repton ABC, in the Class One 30kg final.

Play-offs in sight for Titans

BASKETBALL

NORTHAMPTONSHIRE Titans made it a double over the weekend with victories over Leicester Warriors and Cardiff Archers II which kept them in the hunt for a place in the women's VCARS.co.uk Division Two play-offs.

The Titans shook off the previous week's defeat to Bradford Dragons in the National Trophy final, despite coach Barry Powell having a slightly depleted squad to choose from due to illness.

First up was the trip to local rivals Leicester on Saturday. Twenty points from Angelina Browne-Akinyemi helping them defeat the Midlands South West Conference's bottom side 61-47.

Sacha Thompson and Esme Kinghorn also contributed 13 and 12 points respectively, while Powell was full of praise for Atlanta Cox, the youngest player on the team, who had her best game of the season by out-rebounding the opposition and finding success at the offensive end.

Sunday's re-arranged game at home to Cardiff proved much the same, with Browne-Akinyemi again leading the way with an impressive 40-point haul. Nauei Cali also scored 33 as the Titans ran out 88-55 victors.

Powell's team can seal their place in the play-offs this weekend when the regular season comes to a close with back-to-back games.

They face the return match away to the Archers on Saturday, followed by the visit of Bristol Storm to Weavers Leisure Centre on Sunday. The play-offs get underway on the weekend of March 23-24.

Thunder sow seeds

BASKETBALL

NORTHANTS Thunder took a step closer to securing a seeding for the VCARS.co.uk Division Four play-offs with a 79-57 victory over local rivals Leicester Warriors II on Saturday.

Thunder had already sealed the Midlands Conference title the week before and the aim now is to secure a favourable seeding for the quarter finals, which start later this month.

Graham Yates and Rob Eddon's men had no trouble maintaining their unbeaten league record in this game, having opened up a 42-20 lead by the midway point of the second quarter.

The second half saw the Thunder coaches try some new ideas out, with Leicester actually winning the final quarter 20-17. However, the result was never in doubt.

Thunder's scoring was dominated by Leome Francis and Jacob Holt with 16 and 15 points respectively while Tomas Vladuka contributed 12. They host College of West Anglia Fury at the Northants Basketball Centre on Saturday.

Northampton puncher lines up British star

BOXING

NORTHAMPTON featherweight Ashley Lane says he can beat big-talking Kal Yafai after a title bout with Josh Wale at the end of next month.

Yafai is a rising star in British boxing, claiming six knockouts in his seven fights so far.

Lane approached Yafai's Birmingham camp last year but his advances were dismissed by Eddie Hearn – son of legendary sports promoter Barry Hearn – with Yafai's unbeaten record at stake.

"I'm looking for a fight against Kal Yafai," said Lane. "I was meant to fight him for my last fight but Eddie Hearn didn't want the fight. They wanted something easier."

"They keep saying he's the best bantamweight in the country. I'm a strong, tough lad and I really think I can beat Yafai."

Lane will prepare for the potential clash by competing for the British Masters bantamweight title against Wale, who has lost his last two fights.

Nevertheless, it should prove the sternest test of

Lane's career,

which has seen

three wins in seven fights.

"It's going to be toughest fight I've ever had," said Lane. "It's a career-changing fight for me. I've seen Josh Wale box on Sky and I've seen him box against Kid Galahad on Channel Five. He's good, he's strong and he can hit so it's going to be a hard fight. I've been watching videos of him near enough every day, looking for weaknesses. I've got my tactics thought up and I know where I'm going to be attacking him."

Lane has never fought below eight stone ten but will drop down to eight stone six for the title bout. He admits dieting is the most challenging part of being a boxer.

"The hardest part has definitely got to be the diet," he said. "Every fight I've had, I've always tweaked it because you learn throughout each fight what works for you. I've introduced more veg, more fruit, seeds and some rice and potatoes. No chocolate bars, no crisps or cake. It is hard work; I love cake."

"The first couple of days this week I've found it a little bit tougher. I'll be at home and my mates will come back with pizza or cake and start stuffing their faces."

"Sometimes I'll go for a run or something or I'll turn my back on them and watch the television."

Reeve set for return from injury

BOXING

NATHAN Reeve is eager to put a frustrating eight months behind him and get back into contention for a shot at the British title later this year when he returns to the ring on Saturday night.

The 23-year-old from Northampton won the British Masters super flyweight belt with a seventh-round stoppage of Terry Broadbent last September, but various hand injuries have kept him out of action since then.

Reeve faces Bulgarian Stefan Slavchev in a six-rounder on the under card of the show in Wolverhampton which commemorates 70 years of boxing at the Civic Hall and already has his sights set on the next challenge.

"This one is an eliminator for an international title and although I'm not sure what could be next I have faith in my management that they'll steer me along the right lines," said Reeve.

"There was talk of an English title, but that fell through. [British super flyweight champion] Paul Butler also messaged me on Twitter saying if I win this it would set me up for a shot at his title, but we'll have to see.

"I was ranked second in the country until Jamie Conlan came back after a year out, so I want to win this fight, get back to second in the rankings and then fight for a title later in the year."

Former Far Cotton Boys amateur Reeve had been hoping to defend his Masters belt before Christmas, but damaged a muscle in his right hand which caused it to swell up and prevented him from doing any sparring or bag work.

Soon after recovering, he slipped in the snow and sprained his wrist while out running, although he has now fully recovered from those setbacks to start fighting again.

"I've been able to keep doing my running since then, so I've managed to keep up my fitness," said Reeve. "It's frustrating when you're not able to do any bag work because I don't really enjoy running but I do enjoy fighting.

"I actually had to ease off with my training a few weeks ago because I didn't want to peak too soon. You know when your body is reaching its physical peak and I want to make sure I'm there on Saturday."

Day on an England journey

RUGBY UNION

BY MARC BAZELEY
marc.bazeley@hpnorthants.co.uk

ALEX Day believes English rugby is heading on an upward curve and the Northampton Saints scrum half is excited to be part of the next generation hoping to continue the trajectory.

Day has started all three games for the England Under-20s in their Six Nations campaign and looks set to maintain his place when they face Italy at Franklin's Gardens tomorrow night.

A 40-10 win over France on the day the senior side defeated the same opponents at Twickenham kept the U20s in with a chance of claiming their third consecutive Six Nations title.

"English rugby is in a good place at the moment and I think it is going in the right direction with Stuart Lancaster at the top," said Day. "That's filtering down through the age grades.

"It's all about hard work and team work, and that is going to help you win championships and titles.

"We've got that philosophy here and we're focussed on putting in a good performance, working hard for each other and hopefully coming away with a win."

The signs are also good for Northampton. Not only are Ben Foden, Lee Dickson, Tom Wood, Courtney Lawes and Dylan Hartley all with the seniors, but Day is joined by Academy team mates Tom Collins, Tom Stephenson, Will Hooley, Danny Hobbs-Awoyemi and Danny Herriott in the U20 squad.

Day is the only one who has been a regular starter and will be an integral part of the squad for the IRB Junior World Championship at the end of the season where England will go head-to-head with the super powers of the game.

"It's a massive goal for all of us," said Hooley.

"The Six Nations has been great, but to go and play teams like South Africa and, if we progress further on in the tournament, teams like Australia, New Zealand – you want to play against the best players in your position."

ROYAL & DERNGATE NORTHAMPTON

THE rapidinchloss CLINIC

One of our success stories...

Who: Leslie Carey, 39

Where: The Rapid Inch Loss Clinic Nuneaton

When: 6 Weeks, June 2011

What Happened: Leslie had Ultrasonic Liposuction on her stomach and inner thigh but only lost $\frac{3}{4}$ inch after 1st visit. She then lost $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches after her 2nd visit, before losing 16 inches in total over the course of her therapy.

How: We focussed Ultrasonic Liposuction on Leslie's inner thigh and stomach once a week (1 session on each area) for 6 weeks. After her 1st session Leslie ate take away food on 4 of the evenings, as well as drinking several pints of beer most nights. This resulted in slow progress. However, after only losing $\frac{3}{4}$ inch in week 1, Leslie decided to drink a little more moderately, ate more balanced meals and as a result she then lost $2\frac{1}{2}$ inches between her 2nd & 3rd treatments. Leslie then resolved to adjust her lifestyle, she started eating & drinking in moderation, while making an effort to be more active generally. Leslie went on to lose 16 inches in total over her course which took in 12 sessions each on her stomach & inner thighs.

Why was Ultrasonic Liposuction Needed: Leslie has a demanding job as a director of an engineering firm, this lead to Leslie having a poor diet of take away food & beer, with little activity in her daily life due to a lack of time. Leslie arrived for her 1st session as a size 16, standing at 5' 6" tall

Where are they now: After achieving her target size and shape Leslie had lost 16 inches from her stomach and inner thigh. After completing her course and armed with her improved lifestyle and body shape Leslie felt inspired to take up Exercise! She began walking 3 evenings a week and therefore needed no more sessions to maintain her new size and shape!
